Spot Ad. Monday, Dec. 5--~~9 P.M.~~ 9:15 Northampton Market.

Isn't this just about that time of evening when your mouth begins to water for a nice juicy apple or for some delicious tuna fish and crackers? Tomorrow night, have food on hand to help you study. Go to the Northampton Market, 147 Main Street, and purchase all the food you want at reasonable prices. There you will find just about any kind of edible that you might crave--- a stock, literally, from soup to nuts. Why not try the Northampton Market sometime tomorrow? After all, it is so much easier to work when there is food nearby to give you that much needed additional energy.
